We are a full service general litigation and dispute resolution firm serving the greater Seattle area. Practice areas include real estate and business disputes, construction defects, foreclosure defense, surplus funds recovery, landlord-tenant law and more.

We are experienced in resolving legal disputes and representing clients at trial. It is estimated that 95% of all disputes get resolved through negotiations or mediation. Having a lawyer with experience in negotiating a fair settlement of your dispute is therefore extremely important. Having a lawyer capable and willing to take your case to trial if that becomes necessary can also be critical for a positive outcome. While no attorney can guarantee the success or costs of any dispute, having an experienced attorney who can go the distance can improve your odds of a good outcome.

We provide legal representation in the following specialized fields of law:

- Real estate disputes
- Construction defects
- Foreclosure defense
- Surplus Funds recovery
- Landlord Tenant
- Contract disputes
- Business litigation
- General litigation

Our offices are located in Bellevue, Washington, and we serve all the surrounding Seattle areas, including Snohomish County and King County. Other counties are available on a case-by-case basis. Our foreclosure mediation and foreclosure defense services are available nationwide to anyone who owns a home in Washington State.
